Making Sacred Connections: Worship

Sermon series - Remembering Who We Are

Our culture is really good at telling (in implicit and explicit ways) us who we are and how we should relate to others. We hear these narratives through social media, friends and family, politicians and many other sources. Sometimes we hear “we’re not good enough,” “there isn’t enough for everyone,” “some are better than others.” What is the narrative God invites us into? What do our sacred texts tell us? For the next several weeks, drawing mostly from Paul’s Letters to the Corinthians, we will reflect and remember who we are as God’s beloved people.

Connection and Reflection- Contemplation and Community: Wednesdays, 12:30-1:30 pm, Labyrinth Room Join us for a time of reflection and conversation. Held in the beautiful Labyrinth Room, framed with music, readings, and a time for silence and quiet reflection, we will come together to listen, to talk, and to be in community together. All are welcome.

Special Children’s Time

On the first Sunday of the month, there is a special time for children during our Sunday worship service. Children, ages 3 and older, are invited for a time of story, craft and recreation. The Children will start in the Sanctuary and move to the library. We are deeply grateful for Christine Sizer who is volunteering to lead this program. If you have any questions, please contact sundayschool@kxcalgary.com.

Coloring packets are available every Sunday in the back of the sanctuary. Please feel free to help yourself.

Pre-Service Bible Study, Starting September 17, 9:30 am, Library

Join William Brook, a seminary student at Vancouver School of Theology, for a look at the Sunday theme and scripture reading. The time will be interactive and conversational. All are welcome. Please feel free to join one Sunday or all Sundays.

Making Sacred Connections: Building Community

Welcome and Information Table

A new welcome table is set up in the back of the sanctuary. This will be where you can find information about events, sign up to volunteer and find friendly people to answer questions about Knox. Thank you to Karen Harrison and Michael Malolos for hosting.

Welcome, Edgar Fernando as Affirming Team Lead

We are pleased to announce Edgar Fernando (he/him) as Knox’s new Affirming Team leader. Edgar joined Knox in 2017 after moving to Calgary with his partner, Ralph, in 2014. Edgar comes with an extensive background in social service, most recently serving as Volunteer Coordinator at the Centre for Newcomers. Edgar serves as a board member of Gender and Sexual Diversity Advisory Board with Calgary Police Services, which supports LGBTQ issues and Rainbow Elders Calgary which educates people about Senior LGBTQ issues. Edgar enjoys walking, dancing, talking with people, travelling, visiting museums, theater, watching old movies, reading about history, environment, and lately learning French. His motto, from his mom: "Be strong in the face of adversity."

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, September 30 and October 1

We encourage everyone to mark this important day by engaging in activities that promote further work in truth and reconciliation. Watch your email for links to city-wide events. On October 1, Rev. Tony Snow will lead worship.

WEEKLY Opening up the Sanctuary - Volunteers Needed We want to rebuild our presence as a church in downtown Calgary by opening the sanctuary and labyrinth for those seeking a quiet space during the week. We're looking for volunteer hosts who can open the 6th Avenue doors and stay to greet visitors for a couple of hours (schedule TBD). We're initially targeting Tuesday at lunchtime but would appreciate volunteer hosts any weekday between 10 am and 2 pm. This is an important and rewarding way to engage in the life and work of our church.

If you would like to inquire about this project, contact Doug Chandler (dchandler1@shaw.ca) or the church office (office@kxcalgary.com).

WEEKLY Volunteers Required for Newcomers' English at Knox

English classes (session two) for refugees and immigrants begin tomorrow. This session's classes are scheduled for Mondays and Thursdays for five weeks from 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM.

A number of individuals have volunteered to assist in general, but the time has now arrived to make commitments for specific days. Although it is always difficult to prejudge how many volunteers are required for a particular day, too many volunteers are usually better than too few. Volunteers become increasingly important as the number of learners having little skill in English arrive with numerous others having relatively good English skills.

Please remember that as a volunteer, you need not commit to assisting in five weeks of classes. Assisting with only one or two classes would be appreciated. Don't be deterred by lack of knowledge. A volunteer's major requirement is a caring attitude ... together with personal qualities of kindness, understanding, and empathy. Some newcomers are emotionally fragile having suffered severe trauma and are happy to simply find a listening ear. Your stress in this role should be minimal because all the materials and necessary assistance you require will be supplied.

You can indicate your willingness to assist by emailing Dennis at EnglishatKnox@gmail.com and indicating dates you are available. An effort will be made not to oversubscribe volunteers for any particular day.

WEEKLY Book Club in the Board Room and Online, Wednesdays, 6 pm

This fall, a small group, including friends from Central UCC on 7th Avenue SW, have already decided to read and discuss “Holy Envy: Finding God in the Faith of Others” by Barbara Brown Taylor.

We welcome anyone who would like to join us.

We plan to meet weekly for 7 weeks on Tuesday evening from 6pm – 7pm in the Knox Boardroom and will also have zoom availability. Our first meeting is on September 12th. A few copies of the book are available from the Knox Office for a donation of $5. We will aim to read 2 chapters per week and discuss at the meetings. Our first meeting will be an introduction to the author and each other.

Please contact Sue at the office on sforsyth@kxcalgary.com if you would like to join the group, you will be very welcome.

Engaging Vulnerable People Training, Today, 1 pm, Sanctuary

Today, @ 1: pm we have arranged for Alpha House to come in and hold a seminar on Engaging Vulnerable People.

The topics will be:

- Develop Understanding around Homelessness and Addiction.
- Confront Personal Biases
- Improve Interactions
- Confidence in Action: Understanding Role & Purpose.

MONTHLY Discover Knox Session Our monthly informational tour will be on September 24 following the Sunday morning worship service. All are invited to take a behind-the-scenes tour of parts of the building and hear more about the Knox community.

MONTHLY Potluck Lunch

Our monthly potluck lunch will return, Sunday, October 1. Mark your calendars for a time of fellowship and delicious food following the worship service.

MAKING SACRED CONNECTIONS - OFFERING OUR GIFTS

The 2024 Stewardship Giving Program: Sept. 24 & Oct 8, 2023

This year, the 2024 Stewardship Giving Program will run from Oct 22-Nov. 17, 2023. In anticipation of this event, all interested Congregation members are welcome to attend the 2024 Stewardship Giving Program after Church in the Boardroom on September, 24, 2023. The meeting will be an hour in length. Knox’s financial needs for 2024 will be introduced and you are invited to bring ideas, humour, and conversations to the meeting! A follow-up meeting will be held October 8, 2023 in the Boardroom on Thanksgiving Sunday- a very appropriate day to discuss Thanksgiving to Knox! This will be a short meeting. See you then!

Tuning Up our Finances: Sunday, October 1

Jo-Anne Willment and Janet Zarka invite the Congregation to a conversation on Oct 1, 2023 to discuss the development of a Knox Giving Program extending over a 12-mth period. Stewardship would be one of the Programs lasting 4 weeks but other programs would also be developed. To do this requires a two-step process and your participation in this discussion is very much needed. This does not involve extra costs for Knox. The Knox after-church potluck luncheon will also be held on Oct 1, 2023 so the meeting will be held over good food! We welcome your attendance and discussion.
